Our multipartial project supports diverse Nicaraguan actors in contributing to a non-violent and sustainable transformation of the conflicts that escalated to violence in April 2018.

Main tasks of the position include:
- Implement project activities from the local office in Managua in close cooperation with headquarters in Berlin
- Co-design and implement conflict transformation processes, focusing on dialogue
- Facilitation of dialogue formats
- Provide expertise on conflict transformation and local multi-stakeholder dialogue processes
- Provide conceptual and methodological, as well as administrative and logistical support to the team and partners
- Frequent travel to different project regions in Nicaragua

Qualifications:
- MA degree in a relevant field, such as peace and conflict studies, political science, International Relations or similar
- Advanced relevant work experience in projects or processes with local communities and with thematic focus on dialogue and culture of peace
- Excellent verbal and written language skills in Spanish and English
- Experience in Word, Excel, PowerPoint and Outlook
- Regional experience in Latin America, preferred in the Central American region
- Dialogue facilitation experience

Additional skills:
- Strong ability to work as part of a team as well as independently
- Strong empathetic and intercultural skills
- Ability to work under time-pressure
- Curiosity, passion and perseverance

The contract duration of the full-time position (40hrs./week) is limited until December 31, 2020 (extension depending on the availability of project funds).

Application procedure: Please submit your CV and cover letter as well as diplomas, certificates and references (letters or contact information) until December 29th 2019 through our online application system https://www.berghof-foundation.org/en/about-us/work-with-us/

We reserve the right to hold interviews before the deadline.

We look forward to receiving your application!
